

INTRODUCTION OF QUALITY COUNCIL OF INDIA:

Quality Council of India (QCI) was established as the National body for Accreditation on recommendations of Expert Mission of EU after consultations in Inter-ministerial task force, Committee of Secretaries and Group of Ministers in 1996. The Council came into existence in 1997 through a cabinet decision. It was created as an autonomous non-profit organization through seed associations, i.e. ASSOCHAM, CII and FICCI, to establish & operate National Accreditation structure. Accreditation facilitates trade, by way of establishing equivalence & global acceptance of certification, inspection and Testing being undertaken by various conformity assessment bodies, in the areas of Quality, Environment, Food Safety etc.

The Mission of QCI is to lead nationwide quality movement in India by involving all stakeholders for emphasis on adherence to quality standards in all spheres of activities primarily for promoting and protecting interests of the nation and its citizens. (Refer www.qcin.org)
